
"ludi" what i would like to see her on?

Posted by captain stevo - 2007/12/02 01:25

Hi All.

Firstly i am really impressed with the new site...very nice.. and Ludi looks really cool. I thought i would get a thread running on ideas on what people would like to see "ludi" on. Personaly its got to be a "T Shirt" with the date and year on..secondly..Mugs, you cant go wrong with mugs. Also how about mouse mats...well there are so get your thinking caps on.

Cheers for now.

You've got a Yes from me on the T-shirts.

And speaking of merchandise, how about some Ludicrous dice this year?

Thanks for the reply Rosie...good to see someone else using the forum. Spoke to Symon and he really likes the idea about Ludi T Shirts...and maybe a "Dark Ludi" for the "Black T-Shirt Brigade". I will mention the Ludicrous dice to Sy next time i see him..or hopefully he will see this post!

I'd totally pick up a Ludi shirt, Dice would be an cool idea too, especially if you did(not wanting to mention a GW product. It burns , it burns!:P) Something alone the size of the GW Big gun dice could be neat.

Mugs would be sorta cool, maybe erm tankards or something like that. Mouse mats too, great way of marketing, or bumper stickers or something like that.

That and i gotta say, a dark ludi for the aforementioned "BLack T-Shirt Brigade" would be awesomesauce

The forum was seeming a bit sparse so I thought I'd jump in and hope someone else followed. It seems to have worked!

For dice I was thinking along the lines of the sort they give out at other conventions, like Salute or Dragonmeet, with the name and year on.

For the T-shirts, not sure we need to change Ludi's colours, but we definately need her on black shirts. And in womens sizes as well as mens!

The hats idea is really cool...and something that no one else has thought about?. Would it be for the kids? or for anyone.....now there's a thought... im sure there will be plenty of parents coming along with their families. So far we have had a great response to this post so thanks everyone!!.

The ideas so far are:

Ludicrous T-Shirts....this is a must!!! Ladies sizes as well as mens...and a must for the "black T-shirt brigade"
Ludicrous Dice.....nice touch especially as its a games convention..any you always need dice.
Ludi Tankard's / Mugs...nice to have next to your PC for those long cold nights playing on the Ludicrous games site.
Ludicrous mouse mats...nice marketing ploy!!! put the Runik Games website address and phone number on...for those moments when you have to get that model online!!!
Ludi Balloons for the kids..... and those of us still young at heart.

BUT WE NEED MORE IDEAS!!!

Cheers for now.

I'd say deck protectors and deck boxes, but I don't know about the practicality of that. I dunno about the other magic players, but that would be a story to tell to everyone you play magic against in the future. And...

That's it, I'm out of idea's. :side:

suggestion from "mumzy":

playing cards. the normal 52 card pack with a ludi back. ludi poker? :laugh:

and also, keyrings. either the plastic-fob-with-a-picture kind, or a metal cut out shape, or possibly even a die cast miniature fig....

now there's an idea...a commemorative Ludi miniature?
